PRICE TO BE REDUCED.

The Daily Argus Only 10 Cents a Week After Today.

Commencing with the first day of December, the subscription rate for THE DAILY ARGUS will be only 10 cents a week, a reduction of 2½ cents from the present price. At the same time the weekly system of collecting will be inaugurated in place of the monthly. Instead of a regular collector calling on subscribers once a month, collections will be made by the carrier boys on their respective routes every Saturday. All subscription accounts will be balanced up to Dec. 1, and a new account opened with each subscriber on the 10-cents-a-week plan.

Pay Up and Start Over.

It is therefore imperative that all arrears be paid up in full as soon after this month as possible. To that end we request all our patrons to have whatever they owe up to Dec. 1 ready for the collector when he calls, and also to remember the carrier will call each Saturday. By following the request hereby made, subscribers will confer a great favor, as the change in collection periods will entail much work and more or less confusion until the weekly plan is fully established. When we are satisfied, it will prove not only more satisfactory to ourselves, but also to the patrons of THE ARGUS, than the system now in vogue. There has been a general and growing demand for more frequent collections, and THE ARGUS takes pleasure in responding to it, at the same time reducing its subscription price. At 10 cents a week THE ARGUS should find its way into every house in Rock Island, and we confidently look for an appreciable increase in circulation.

REYNOLDS.

REYNOLDS, November 29.—E. C.
City, Iowa, where he expects to make his future home.

M. C. Crandell has returned from an extended visit through the west.
The W. F. M. S. gave a Thanksgiving supper at the hall Thursday evening.

Mrs. L. Hollister, of Peoria, has been visiting friends here and in Edgington during the week.

J. W. Titterton has moved into the residence of Mrs. S. M. Walker.
Mrs. Walker expects to remain in Chicago.

G. H. Parmenter of Lyndon, was in town last week, fixing up his chicken house for business during the winter.

Frank Klien, our enterprising harness dealer, is remodeling the Stuart drug store, which he purchased recently, and will remove his stock of harness, etc., in the spring.

O. L. Bruner, the hustling stock buyer and agent of the Keeley institute at Dwight, has gone to "Jag-town" with three more victims of the liquor disease.

The lecture committee expects to give another entertainment in December. Unless better satisfaction can be had in renting the opera house, the lecture committee will enter at once upon plans to build one of more modern style and equipments.

MILAN.

MILAN, Nov. 30.—The policemen's hall was given in the town hall on Wednesday night and was greatly enjoyed.

The W. M. B. gave an entertainment at the town hall on Thanksgiving night, the proceeds to go towards furnishing the handsome new Methodist church, which has been erected at a cost of $6,000. The seating will cost some $400. The ladies have undertaken the task of paying for the furnishing of the edifice, and they have gone about their work in such a determined way that they have met with pronounced success.
An excellent New England supper was given from 5 to 8 o'clock, after which recitations, pantomimes and other pleasing features given on similar occasions, were presented. The ladies having this responsibility of payment on their hands, are not in the slightest faint-hearted, although the burden is no trivial one. D.

A Great Success.

There are many remarkable successes on the road this season, but none exceed the popularity enjoyed by the latest New York success, "She Couldn't Marry Three." Press and public accord it an ovation wherever presented. The scenic effects are superb, the story an intense and interesting one, unlike the many unreasonable and unnatural plays with which the public are surfeited. It is full of hearty laughter, bright and catchy music, the most sensational climaxes.

The company is one of the strongest on the road, the scenery the most magnificent ever built, and as the curtain rises on each act, prolonged applause attest the public appreciation of each beautiful stage picture. The great scenic artists, Messrs. Daniel Crimmins and Herbert Speck, feel justly proud of their work on this production.

A High Compliment.

BOLTON, Conn.—I am very much pleased with the effect of your Simmons Liver Regulator, and have recommended it to a great many gist sells it in powder or liquid.

AN ALL ROUND CRACKSMAN.

His Thievings Cover a Wide Field, From Canned Goods to a Tombstone.

Kansas City has developed one of the most unique thieves that has yet been heard of in real life. Several months ago the police force learned that a sneak thief was making depredations upon cellars and pantries and even on outlying grocery stores, and carrying off canned goods and such eatables as were not perishable.

There were certain peculiarities about the robberies that led the police to believe that they were all done by the same person, but there was no clue that they could follow to catch the thief. After amassing a goodly quantity of food on which to start to housekeeping the thief began on fuel, and whole cartloads were carried away, each case showing the evidences of the food thief. When a full supply of coal was taken, the thief turned his attention to furniture and carried off articles of all kinds, from light chairs to a heavy bedstead with mattresses. An entire bedroom set was taken from a house and no trace left. The family was absent for a night, and on their return they found their room despoiled.

Having furnished his bedroom and parlors, the depredator set about getting his kitchen in order, and first an ice chest was taken from a house in Ar-mourdale, and then a cooking stove and kitchen table from a house in Rosedale.
By this time the police were fairly alive to the fact that the stealing was going on right under their noses, and they began to talk about the queer thief. This attention seems to have flattered the thief, for he signaled his presence next by carrying off a large baseburner stove from a parlor in Kansas City, Kan., while the family were spending the evening with a neighbor. This occurred last week, and since then it appears that the man has his furniture, food and fuel for the winter, for the depredations have ceased.

Another phase, however, seems to have broken out, and it is evident that a member of the thief's family has sickened and died. A few days ago a drug store was broken into and medicine taken, and last night the climax was reached when the thief went to the cemetery out on the Quindare boulevard and carried off a fine tombstone. There is a talent here that shows the development of a system that would beat a bank, and the police are very anxious to make the acquaintance of the thief.—Cor. St.
Louis Globe-Democrat.
